The Secret of the Rosary by St. Louis De Montfort, With Reverence: St. Francis de

Sales sets a good example of faithfulness in this respect: quite exhausted from the day he remembered, towards midnight, that he had left a few decades unsaid; praying on his knees, he would not go to bed until finished, notwithstanding all the efforts of his secretary who saw he was tired and begged him to let these prayers go until the next day. And let me remind to copy the faithfulness, reverence and devotion of the holy friar, mentioned in the Chronicles of St. Francis, who always said his Rosary very devoutly and reverently before dinner. (I told this story earlier in this book.)

After I had our second child, I was anxious to get home from the hospital to show my five-year-old daughter her new sister. When I got out of our car, I asked my daughter what she thought of her new sister. She looked a little disgusted and replied, "I told you that I wanted a puppy!" —Pam Vogel

The Epiphany Of The Lord – January 6, 2019

Lord, every nation on earth will adore you.

(Responsorial Psalm)

Dear Brothers and Sisters of St. James' and St. Margaret's Parish Communities,

On behalf of Fr. Andrew, Deacon Jim and myself we would like to extend our heartfelt thanks and deepest gratitude for all the Christmas cards, food, cookies, candies and gifts we have received over the past weekends. It greatly warms our hearts, and humbles our souls to be recipients of such beautiful and thoughtful expressions of your generosity. We would like to convey our deepest appreciation and profound regard to you, who comprise our Parish Communities for your devout and faithful participation in the Sacramental life of the Church especially during this Holy Season of Christmas. It brings us great joy to witness your robust involvement in the Liturgy. It is always an honor and privilege to serve the People of God, but in particular, serving the Parish Communities of St. Margaret's and St. James' includes a special grace and delight.

At this time, we would like to express our gratitude for those who engage in special ministries throughout the year; providing music and singing in the choir, reading the Word of God, distributing Holy Communion, welcoming and greeting people as ushers at Mass, the Ladies of the Altar Societies, and those who decorate the Churches for the different liturgical seasons.

We also want to take this opportunity to recognize and thank those of our Parish Communities who play vital roles in support of the Parishes; as Maintenance Personnel, Administrative Assistants, Directors of Religious Education, Catechists, the women of the Catholic Daughters, the men of the Knights of Columbus, the people who serve on both Parishes' Councils and Committees, and the many volunteers that belong to various groups in our parishes. And a special thanks to those who have taken the initiative to ensure the walk ways to the Churches are clear of snow and ice when wintry weather decides to surprise us.

The Solemnity of the Epiphany commemorates the light of Christ coming into a darkened world; we celebrate the manifestation of this light in the Word made Flesh enlightening all nations. As Jesus Christ illumines each of us, we in turn are called in imitation of Him to carry on and share that same light within our families and communities. We partake in this endeavor by participating in the Sacramental life of the Church and engaging in the different roles that aid in making the larger mission of the Body of Christ a success.

Again we thank you for all you give, for everything you do, and for all that you allow God to work through you.

May the Peace of Jesus Christ be with you and your families forever and ever!

Deacon Mo

Stewardship Snippets:

Then, opening their treasure chests, the wise men offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. Matthew 2:11

As we start the New Year, let's resolve to open our treasure chests and grow as persons of generosity, hopefulness and good cheer. Let's confidently travel the journey God sets before us and so follow the example of the wise men.
